Otterbein Marblehead is made for active lifestyles. Exercise options, clubhouses with billiards, yoga, movies, parties, a library, a woodshop, art studios, worship services, and learning opportunities keep things lively at Otterbein Marblehead.

Our living spaces at Otterbein Marblehead open to all of the amenities in the main building. Within just a few steps you will find a spacious multi-purpose room for exercise, special programs, parties and entertaining, dining rooms for independent living and assisted living, wellness services, banking services, a beauty and barber shop, and more!

When you visit, you'll see our location can't be beat — you're always near the action at Otterbein Marblehead. Enjoy a lakeside symphony concert, grab a friend for a stroll along our nature walking trails, or fish from the pier. Play a game of shuffleboard outside or go birdwatching with a friend. We have something for everyone's interests, from gardening classes to computer training, and more!

It's easy to get in and out at Otterbein Marblehead, and if you ever want to get out for a bit, the campus shuttle will pick you up for organized activities and return you safely to your doorstep.

Incorporated in 1891 and embraced by the rocky limestone coast of the great Lake Erie, Marblehead is a thriving small town characteristic of true Americana. We are rich in history and culture. With picturesque, natural settings, friendly people, quaint shops, great eats and fun festivals.

• Marblehead Lighthouse

(4.1 miles from Otterbein):

Check out Lake Erie's oldest lighthouse that's still in operation today! This is one of the most photographed spots on Lake Erie and proves to be a highly educational spot for tourists and locals alike.

• Sandusky Bay

(5 miles from Otterbein):

Bring your camera! The bay area is a great spot for local fishers to bring in perch, but it's also a beautiful spot to check out the sunrise. With Cedar Point Amusement Park in view, you'll feel like a kid again!

• Annual Marblehead Music Fest

Enjoy live music throughout downtown Marblehead

• Marblehead Village Farmer's Market

Visit the Farmer's Market for seasonally fresh, locally grown vegetables, fruit and homemade items.

• East Harbor State Park Beach

Open dawn to dusk, is free to the public, and also features walking trails, a bike path and camping. Features a small beach composed of large cobble and shell fragments. Nature enthusiasts will enjoy the abundance of waterfowl, shorebirds and other species of wildlife found in the park's scenic wetlands.

• Great Egret Marsh Preserve

The 150-acre Great Egret Marsh Preserve boasts classic Lake Erie marshland, blanketed each summer with water lotus and teeming with wildlife. The preserve is a haven for waterfowl and wading birds—including great egrets, which can congregate there in abundance. Visitors will find opportunities on the 1.2-mile easy loop trail for birdwatching, hiking, kayaking, and canoeing. Open year-round, dawn to dusk.

• Kelleys Island Ferry

Kelleys Island, listed on the National Register of Historic Places, is an outdoor-lovers paradise. Kelleys Island Ferry offers the only daily auto/passenger ferry service to Kelleys Island with a short enjoyable 20 minute boat ride from Marblehead Ohio. Kelleys Island Ferry offers great views of the Marblehead Lighthouse, Put-in-Bay, Cedar Point and the Lake Erie Islands.
